

The importance of inhibitors eradication even in clinically complicated patients

Grifols EAHAD 2018 Symposium

Wednesday, February 7th
14:00 – 15:30, Room Madrid
Madrid, Spain

Chair: Johannes Oldenburg

Welcome and Introduction

Johannes Oldenburg (Bonn, Germany)

What is a clinically complicated patient in hemophilia A?

Guy Young (Los Angeles, CA, USA)

Real cases of clinically complicated patients with inhibitors

Johannes Oldenburg (Bonn, Germany)

Guy Young (Los Angeles, CA, USA)

Elena Santagostino (Milan, Italy)

Carmen Escuriola-Ettingshausen (Frankfurt, Germany)

On the new era of hemophilia treatment: Should inhibitors be eradicated in clinically complicated patients?

Yes: Elena Santagostino (Milan, Italy)

No: Johannes Oldenburg (Bonn, Germany)

Q&A

GRIFOLS